

Contours of Covenant!

Jer 31:31; Ezek 36:26

A covenant is a chosen relationship that commits us to mutual and binding promises.

God's path out of spiritual bondage is to be bonded to others through Him.

God's ultimate intention in creating us only becomes realized through covenant.

In the scripture, covenant is cumulative.

Because of covenant, Jesus at judgment will center on the conduct of our relationships, firstly with God and then with others.
